A Christmas Audioplay, based on an original story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

This brand-new audio-adaptation of the classic Sherlock Holmes Christmas story, adapted specially for Network Theatre by Emma Byrne, recorded in November 2010 and released on the Network Theatre website in time for Christmas. The adaptation is set in the original period and includes a range of characters, from Mr Baker and Mrs Oakshott to Mrs Hudson, Doctor Watson and The Great Detective himself.

The reading was held on the 28th October (7pm), auditions on the 9th of November (7pm), rehearsal on the 18th November (7pm) and the recording on the 21st November (10am - 5pm).

There was a festive launch party and premiere on the 10th of December with a Q&A with the cast, director and Mr Daniel Smith, author of The Sherlock Holmes Companion.
